

SENT VIA E-MAIL [REDACTED]

June 20, 2024

Registry Office c/o Registry Officer Dubois
Canadian Human Rights Tribunal
240 Sparks Street, 6th Floor West
Ottawa, ON K1A 1J4

Dear Registry Officer Dubois,

Re: First Nations Leadership Council Motion for Interested Party Status- FNCFCSC et al
v AGC (CHRT File T1340/7008)

We are writing on behalf of Nishnawbe Aski Nation (“NAN”) pursuant to the Tribunal’s direction dated June 12, 2024, in regard to the motion filed by the First Nations Leadership Council (“FNLC”) for Interested Party Status in the above noted matter.

NAN takes no position on the motion filed by the FNLC for Interested Party Status. However, as the motion schedule in this matter is well advanced, NAN will not consent to any delay in the existing proceedings and ask that the intervention of the FNLC be limited to what is set out in their motion, should they be granted Interested Party Status.

Further, NAN reserves the right of reply in respect of any further submissions that may result from FNLC’s motion, and requests that a reasonable period of time be provided in the event that this is required.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Julian N. Falconer

cc. Dayna Anderson, Kevin Staska, Cara Verhaeghe, Paul Vickery, Christopher Rugar, Sarah-Dawn Norris
Co-counsel for the respondent, Attorney General of Canada

David Taylor, Sarah Clarke and Kevin Droz
Co-counsel for the complainant First Nations Child and Family Caring Society of Canada

Brian Smith, Jessica Walsh
Counsel for the Canadian Human Rights Commission

Stuart Wuttke, Adam Williamson, Lacey Kassis
Co-counsel for the Assembly of First Nations

Maggie Wenthe, Darian Baskatwang, Jessie Stirling
Co-counsel for the interested party Chiefs of Ontario

Justin Safayeni, Stephen Aylward,
Co-counsel for the interested party Amnesty International

Crystal Reeves and Dawn Johnson
Counsel for the First Nations Leadership Council

