DECISION Carried; 7 opposition; 10 abstention

WHEREAS:

- A. The United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration) states:
- i. Article 18: Indigenous peoples have the right to participate in decision-making in matters which would affect their rights, through representatives chosen by themselves in accordance with their own procedures, as well as to maintain and develop their own Indigenous decision-making institutions;
  - ii. Article 19: States shall consult and cooperate in good faith with the Indigenous peoples concerned through their own representative institutions in order to obtain their free, prior, and informed consent before adopting and implementing legislative or administrative measures that may affect them; and
  - iii. Article 37: Indigenous peoples have the right to the recognition, observance and enforcement of treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements concluded with States or their successors and to have States honour and respect such treaties, agreements, and other constructive arrangements.
- B. Recognizing the sacredness of First Nations children, youth and families and Jordan's Principle, a child-first legal requirement ensuring substantively equal and culturally appropriate access to products, services and supports for First Nations children, and that the government entity of first contact pays for the support without delay.
- C. The First Nations Child and Family Caring Society (Caring Society) and the Assembly of First Nations (AFN) filed a Canadian Human Rights Act complaint in 2007 alleging Canada's inequitable provision of First Nations Child and Family Services (FNCFS) and its choice not to implement Jordan's Principle were discriminatory resulting in serious and irremediable harms.

- D. The parties (“CHRT Parties”) to the 2007 Canadian Human Rights Act complaint included:
- i. The AFN;
  - ii. The Chiefs of Ontario;
  - iii. The Nishnawbe-Aski Nation;
  - iv. Caring Society;
  - v. The Canadian Human Rights Commission; and
  - vi. Amnesty International;
- E. The Canadian Human Rights Tribunal (CHRT) substantiated the discrimination claim in 2016 CHRT 2 and ordered Canada to cease its discriminatory conduct immediately.
- F. Between 2016 and 2024, the CHRT Parties were required to hold Canada accountable and return to the Tribunal on multiple occasions, resulting in 24 non-compliance and procedural orders.
- G. On December 31, 2021, an Agreement in Principle (AIP) was signed as a framework for the negotiations of a Final Settlement Agreement (FSA) on First Nations child and family services, Jordan’s Principle, and the reform of Indigenous Services Canada.
- H. The Final Settlement Agreement will have a direct impact of unprecedented magnitude on the lives of First Nations children, youth, their families, and their communities for generations to come.
- I. The CHRT Parties have agreed to split the FSA negotiations with a child and family services agreement to come first and an agreement on Jordan’s Principle to follow.
- J. Canada has entered negotiations with some of the CHRT Parties (AFN, Chiefs of Ontario, Nishnawbe-Aski Nation) to complete an FSA on child and family services while other CHRT Parties are not included (Caring Society, the Canadian Human Rights Commission, and Amnesty International).
- K. In 2022 CHRT 8, the CHRT ordered the creation of the Expert Advisory Committee (EAC) composed of independent and multidisciplinary experts to develop and oversee the implementation of an evidence-informed workplan to prevent the recurrence of discrimination by ISC.
- L. The CHRT ordered the federal government to work with the Parties to completely overhaul the on-reserve child and family services program and fully implement Jordan’s Principle.
- M. As a result, an agreement was made to re-establish the National Advisory Committee on First Nations Child and Family Services Program Reform (the NAC) to address issues pertaining to child and family services reform, including funding, legislation, immediate relief, Jordan’s Principle and other reforms.
- N. The NAC was mandated by the First Nations-in-Assembly to provide expert advice on long-term reform of FNCFS.
- O. The NAC has not:
- i. completed its review of the proposed funding model for First Nations agencies;
  - ii. begun to review the proposed funding model for First Nations without agencies; or
  - iii. met since February 8, 2024.

- P. The AFN has not set any further NAC meetings despite requests to do so.
- Q. The AFN and Caring Society requested that the Institute of Fiscal Studies and Democracy (IFSD) conduct community-based research to inform the reform of the FNCFS Program and Jordan's Principle.
- R. Recalling and reaffirming Resolution 40/2022, To Ensure Quality of Life to the First Nations Child and Family Services Program and Jordan's Principle, directing:
- i. the Parties to develop evidence-and policy-based options for the long-term reform of Jordan's Principle that will include mechanisms to enable and support self-determination and to return to the First Nations-in-Assembly for review and approval;
  - ii. Canada to extend the timeframes for signing the FSA on long-term reform. The First Nations-in-Assembly must approve the FSA on long-term reform; and
  - iii. Canada to fund the AFN National Advisory Committee on First Nations Child and Family Services Program Reform and regional and other technical experts to inform the FSA.
- S. In light of these legal proceedings and their outcomes, it is critical to ensure that any long-term reforms of the FNCFS Program and Jordan's Principle are driven by community-led processes that reflect the needs of First Nations children and families, and that any agreements related to the FNCFS Program and Jordan's Principle (the LTR Agreements) shall meet the needs of First Nations children, youth and families.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the First Nations-in-Assembly:

1. 4. Direct the AFN Executive Committee and the Children's Chiefs Commission to develop an open and transparent amendment process for the First Nations-in-Assembly to suggest changes, allow for consideration of those changes, and make changes to the LTR Agreements before being put to a vote, such process to be approved by the First Nations-in-Assembly.
5. Direct the Children's Chiefs Commission to provide a detailed report to the First Nations-in-Assembly on all suggested amendments, the decisions made on each amendment, and the outcomes of negotiations, before the First Nation-in-Assembly proceed with any decision-making on the LTR Agreements.

13. Call on Canada to ensure that First Nations who are not AFN members are given a formal opportunity to express their views on the LTR Agreements, and for Canada, the AFN Executive, and the Children's Chiefs Commission to fully consider and incorporate those perspectives into the LTR Agreements.

Voting

14. Direct the AFN to ensure that First Nations Chiefs and Proxies can vote on the LTR Agreements virtually, in-person, or by another means (via specific accommodation to a Chief or Proxy), to accommodate First Nations leadership who are unable to attend in person due to community circumstances or emergencies.
