

DO OUR FIRST NATIONS
CHILDREN
RECEIVE EQUAL
CHILD WELFARE SERVICES
AND ACCESS TO EDUCATION?

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1pm

Film/speaker – Room 241, Beveridge Arts Centre, Acadia University

Alanis Obomsawin's compelling documentary HI HO MISTAHEY explores education as a basic human right. And in support of national "Have a Heart Day" guest speaker Darlene Copeland Peters, Prevention Co-ordinator for Mi'kmaq Family and Children's Services, will share local conditions for Indigenous children.

TIX: Free INFO: Kings-HantsNDP@hotmail.com